About the Author

Michael Aloï is a singer/songwriter from Westchester County, NY.

He has dedicated a large portion of his life to working with children with special needs. His belief in the therapeutic power of music has led him on a path to thousands of concerts for children in hospitals and special needs facilities over the past 25 years.

He also recently started a non-profit, called Songs for Smiles, to get other musicians to work with children across the country.

Running a close second to his family is his love of animals.

He is so excited to now bring his creative talents to children's books. His first book, "Charlie and Chuck: The story of how a boy and his dog help save the world" brings to life his love of children and dogs and hopes that it inspires others to experience the joy of having a pet. That book is now a best seller on Amazon. A musical based on the book is now in production.

His love for dogs and the adventures of his own current fourlegged friends Honeybear and Rambo has led to his new book series – Nosey McNosey. Look for other Nosey McNosey Books in the near future as he continues to solve exciting family mysteries!

This is a work of fiction. Names, characters, places, and incidents either are the product of the author's imagination or are used fictitiously. Any resemblance to actual persons, living or dead, events, or locales is entirely coincidental.

NOSEY MCNOSEY

DOGGIE DETECTIVE

It's Saturday morning and Nosey wants to play with his toys... but his mom always says that they make WAY to much noise.

So on days when the family wants to sleep late.. She always hides them away in her own secret place.

Nosey has an idea and develops a plan to always have a few of his favorite stuffed animals at hand.. If he hides them himself his mom will never find them lying around... and if he keeps moving them every day they will never be found.

Each one makes a scary sound as he grabs them in his paw.. So loud he almost runs out... out the front door when his stuffed DinoSaur lets out a big roar... while his bear shrieks an even louder growl and his wolf lets out a...monstrous howl...

"Better get moving as fast as I can before someone figures out my magnificent plan!"

But when he forgets where he hides them that's when his troubles start to unfold and that's how this case... came to be told.

That night little Kenny starts falling asleep as he hears a great big roar... and as he drifts into his dream he's now living in a world full of dinosaurs.

The next morning little Kenny ran out from his room to tell his mom about a fear that he dreads. "I just can't get these horrible roaring sounds from last night out of my head... I think there's a monster... hiding under my bed."

"Kenny, there's only one way to clear up this problem... only one in this house who can surely solve them. It's time to put Nosey back on the case. He is sure to find that monster... if it's hiding... any place."

DOGGIE DETECTIVE

“Looks like I’m back on the beat I hope my reward will again be something good to eat.”

NOSEY INDIANA MCNOSEY

"If you don't know it by now, finding missing things is a family tradition ... for uncle Nosey "Indiana" McNosey it was his lifelong mission. So off I go so I have no regrets, it's time to follow in my Uncle's Footsteps."

"I can find things any place, being Nosey is what I do. To find a trace of a monster here I need to search for a clue."

“Let me take a look out back just like I search for crumbs.. I’ve got to solve this monster mystery before nighttime comes.”

“Next, I need to get the courage to look under Kenny’s bed... just like little Kenny, it is a task I must say I do dread... this is a scary game of monster hide and seek. Slowing walking into his room I tiptoe in to take a peek.”

“To find this monster, my family all put me in their trust.. and much to my surprise (as I open my eyes) It's pretty dark under here and all I am able to see is another sock and some messy dust.”

The next morning , Kenny's sister came running out from her room. And her face was all full of doom and gloom.

"I hate to tell all of you, she said with a scowl, in the middle of night I heard a very loud howl. I didn't believe Kenny at first... I thought it was all in his head, but I think that Monster is now hiding under MY bed."

The following morning mom said to dad
"Did you happen to hear me in the middle of the night? I woke up in a terrible fright."

"I'm surprised you didn't hear me howl when I heard that very loud growl.. I've been thinking about what Kenny and Jenny said and I think that monster is now hiding under OUR bed."

“ Where could this monster be? said Nosey. I’ve looked upstairs, downstairs and even outside to look every place where monsters like to hide.”

“Oops... looks like I did it again, I forgot with my absent minded head... my hiding places for my toys was always under someone's bed.”

As the family was all about to move out...
Nosey runs out the front door with all three toys in his mouth.. "I think I discovered the monsters in our House."

With that, the family lets out a big cheer... and a growl, a howl and roar the whole world could hear... with a laugh in their heart and a smile on their face.. they all say... "It looks like Nosey,... you "solved" another case."

And boys and girls all around the world, Nosey wants you to know, based on the story you just read... the next time you think there might be a monster hiding under YOUR bed... it was probably just our friend... Nosey up to his shenanigans... once again.
